The directors of the Louisville, New Alberny & Chicago Railway bave mailed a circular to the stockholders announcing that the lesse of 15,000 shares of new preferred stock, now in the treasury, has been authorized by the directors. Each stockholder of preferred or common stock will be entitled to subscribe at $40 per share for the new stock to the extent of one-eighth of his holding in either preferred or common stock.

The circular states that the Issue is made under the authority of the stockholders granted in April to sell from time to time such portion of the preferred stock in the treasury as should be necessary for the purchase of eluipment and improvements. The present issue of the stock is to provide funds for the payment of the new equipment curchased in anticipation of the World's Fale business.

He hid away in the office of the stable and declined to be interviewed. Gen. Daniel E. Sickles came next, and then came a sprinkling of theatrical people and lovers of horses.

Deputy Sheriff Heimberger was determined that the sale should take place, but a delay from 10.30 of clock until noon was permitted at the request of Lawyer Charles K. Lexow, representing Miss Gerrish. nel, for the rent of the stable, 155 West
